- (iv) These guidelines comes into effect from the date of issue.

(E) Guidelines for revival/extension of scholarship in r/o of students whose scholarship had been ceased as they had failed to clear their examination

1. The Competent Authority has decided that decision of revival/extension of Scholarship in r/o existing students should be taken up by ZOs/SZOs/RPOs at their own level without referring to Headquarters on the basis of following course duration:-

- (i) Undergraduate – 36 Months (For students other than Afghanistan)
 - (ii) Undergraduate Engineering courses – 48 Months
 - (iii) Post-Graduate – 24 Months
 - (iv) Ph.D – 36 to 66 Months (After 3 years, ROs should obtain recommendation letter for the duration required for completion of his/her course including viva voce by his/her Guide/Supervisor.
 - (v) Maximum one-year (6 to 12 Months) extension is admissible only for final year Afghan Students of UG/PG courses.
 - (vi) In addition to the above, the students may be released Scholarship till the declaration of their consolidated results of all the semesters/final year plus 21 days for preparation of his/her departure (on production of final departure ticket from India).
 - (vii) Headquarters may invariably be kept informed of extension/revival of scholarship of individual student. The Gyan Setu App may also be updated accordingly.
2. In extraordinary circumstances where student has been suspended by the college/University and has been found to be involved in illegal activities, only then the advise of Headquarters should be sought.
3. While releasing scholarship to the students, whose scholarship has been revived, it may be ensured that they have been promoted to next class.
4. ICCR has discontinued the provision of extension of Scholarship in r/o any new student except from Afghanistan who would be joining in Academic Year 2021-22 and onwards.

(F) Guidelines for return journey to home country

- (i) Student should leave the country immediately after the completion of their studies. Under normal circumstances, the time gap between completion of studies and final departure should not exceed one month.
- (ii) Student should submit his/her request for return leg air ticket after successful completion of his/her course at least 15 days prior to the journey.
- (iii) If a student decides to return to his/her country before the completion of the course, he/she also would not be entitled for a return passage. The expenditure would need to be borne by the student himself/herself.
- (iv) ICCR will not pay airfares or any other expenses related to students travelling outside India during vacations or during the duration of the course.

(G) Guidelines for Scholarship Schemes (other than Afghan Students) for new students

In case a new student fails in first year, his/her ICCR Scholarship would be suspended for one year and he/she would have to self-finance his/her studies. Scholarship may be revived from next year (at the end of 2nd year) provided student clears the first year. In case student fails second time, his/her Scholarship will stand terminated and he/she would have the option to complete his/her course as a self finance student. In any case, scholarship would not be given for more than the prescribed length of course. Example is given here under:

A new student who joins in July 2024 and onwards:-

- (i) Upon declaration of results :
 - a) If a student is promoted to the next class, his/her scholarship will continue.
 - b) If student fails, and is not promoted to the next class, his/her scholarship will be suspended and can be revived once he/she clears the 1st year (provided he/she clears the exam at the end of 2nd year).
 - c) If the student fails again, the scholarship will stand terminated with no recourse for revival.
 - d) Scholarship will stand terminated if student fails in 2nd year/any subsequent year and is not promoted in the next class/stage.
 - e) Student whose Scholarship is terminated will not be eligible for return air ticket (if the scheme allows air ticket).
 - f) The Council will not extend the scholarship period if student is detained/ barred from appearing in the exam due to shortage of attendance or malpractice.

Guidelines for Afghan Scholarship Schemes:-

- (i) In case a new student fails and is not promoted to next class in first year, his/her Scholarship may be extended by one year. If the student fails again, and is not promoted to next class, he/she would need to self finance his/her studies till he/she clears 1st year. Scholarship may be revived from next year (at the end of 2nd year) provided student clears the first year. In case student fails more than twice, his/her scholarship will stand terminated and he/she would have to complete his/her course as a self finance student. No extension (i.e. scholarship for additional year) be given after completion of 1st Year. In any case scholarship would not be given for more than the prescribed length of course (plus one year extension).
- (ii) The Council will not extend the scholarship period if student is detained/barred from appearing in the exam due to shortage of attendance or malpractice.
